

WEEKLY SNAPSHOT

Volume 1. Issue 09

Your community. Your stories. Your weekly brief.

Four killed in tavern shooting

🔴 A night out turned tragic after four people were killed in a shooting incident at a Thulamtwana tavern. Authorities are investigating the circumstances surrounding the attack, while the community is left shocked by the loss of lives

READ MORE ➔

Breaking barriers in boxing 🥊 ✨

A new chapter has been opened in sports broadcasting as Smash makes history as SuperSport's first female boxing analyst. Her journey highlights determination, expertise, and the growing role of women in traditionally male-dominated spaces. 🌟 🎙️

READ MORE ➔

Midvaal boosts emergency response 🚒 🚑

New vehicles are set to strengthen Midvaal's emergency services by improving response times and helping teams reach residents faster during critical situations

READ MORE ➔

Behind the scenes of service 🏛️ 🤝 📁

WALKERVILLE & SAVANNA CITY

TIMES

sat down with Midvaal Executive Mayor Alderman Peter Teixeira to uncover what really keeps local government moving. From leadership decisions to the daily grind, he shared honest insights on the dedication, teamwork and effort behind running a successful municipality

WALKERVILLE & SAVANNA CITY

TIMES

wishes all our readers a happy Women's Day this 9 August, as we celebrate the strength, courage and achievements of women everywhere

PRE-WOMEN'S DAY CELEBRATION

Visit The Village Market at 84 on Main, Walkerville, on 8 August 2026 for local stalls, delicious food and a celebration of women.

